From Your Pastor . . .

My dear Brothers and Sisters, there are many times in our lives where it is better to say nothing, rather than ramble on with many words. If we think that speaking many words is going to make things better, maybe it will not. We all need to practice restraint and be careful of the words that come from our mouths. This also applies to what we communicate on social media. As the Apostle James says in his Epistle, “But no one among mankind can tame the tongue; it is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹ With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse people, who have been made in the likeness of God; ¹⁰ from the same mouth come both blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, these things should not be this way” (3:8-10 NASB). Sometimes, few words (maybe even none) are best. We must pray and ask for wisdom from our God before we speak (or write) . . . for we will never be able to get the words back.

With Love and God’s Blessing,

+ Fr. Seraphim

Regarding Holy Communion: Only those faithful who are Orthodox Christians and have properly prepared themselves by fasting, prayer [i.e., Prayers Before Communion], recent confession, and who were at least present for the reading of the Epistle and Gospel should approach to receive the Holy Eucharist. We should all be at peace with each other too. If you have any questions about this, please see Fr. Seraphim. 😊

Colossians 3:12-17

“So, as those who have been chosen of God, holy and beloved, put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience; ¹³ bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, whoever has a complaint against anyone; just as the Lord forgave you, so must you do also. ¹⁴ In addition to all these things put on love, which is the perfect bond of unity. ¹⁵ Let the peace of Christ, to which you were indeed called in one body, rule in your hearts; and be thankful. ¹⁶ Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God. ¹⁷ Whatever you do in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father” (NASB).

“Do you desire, then, to embrace this life of solitude, and to seek out the blessings of stillness? If so, abandon the cares of the world, and the principalities and powers that lie behind them; free yourself from attachment to material things, from domination by passions and desires, so that as a stranger to all this you may attain true stillness.” Evagrius the Solitary
